

SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE IS NOT SAUCE FOR THE GANDER.

The Fort Grant court martial resulted about as we expected it would. Only two of the treacherous scouts were convicted and the sentences passed on them, considering the gravity of their offenses, are shamefully light. Scout No. 19 was sentenced to forfeit to the United States all pay and allowance now due, and to be dishonorably discharged from the service of the government. Scout No. 15, the murderer of Capt. Hentig, was sentenced to "be dishonorably discharged from the service of the United States, forfeiting all pay and allowance now due, and to be confined at hard labor, at such place as the proper authorities may direct, for the term of his natural life." Had the offenders been white soldiers, no such leniency could have been shown. Had they been citizen scouts and guilty of the same crime, they would have been shot without needless ceremony. The Indians, it seems, are a privileged class and can murder, steal, or commit any other crime their brutal instincts may prompt, with perfect impunity.—Florence Enterprise.

We commend the above to the careful consideration of congress. It were useless to recommend it to the war department, for it has a way of doing matters past the apprehension of the world at large. The red "wards of the nation" are a privileged class. They are well fed and well clad, yet, like the lilies, "they toil not, neither do they spin." Let the poor white devil violate the law, and if he is not hung or shot, he is set at hard labor and made to "earn his bread by the sweat of his brow." Indians may break out in periodical war, and after they have elated their thirst for human blood, they are enticed back to their comfortable reservations by red shirts, red blankets, beads and tobacco, and are again pampered at the nation's expense. It appears to us, here upon the border, that it is time that our legislators learned something of a practical nature how these people ought to be treated in order to secure peace to the country and the greatest good to them.

The road agents are at their work again. The Bisbee road is now the field for their harvest. The query is, how did they happen to know the funds were on board? Wells, Fargo & Co. ought to have a detective around to look out for the leaks. Some one tells; the question is, who is it?—Tucson Star.

The solution to the above conundrum is easy to those who know anything about affairs here. Whenever treasure is shipped over the road a messenger is sent on that stage; when there is no treasure there is no guard. Under these circumstances any intelligent person can deduce the fact whether the coach is en bonanza or en borsoso. Again, it is well known that Copper Queen's pay-day is about the 8th of the month, therefore on the 6th, when the guard mounted the coach, it was a reasonable supposition that the money was going forward to pay off with. Mr. J. B. Hume, the company's most confidential employee, is here, and can and will verify this solution of the matter, which we trust will be satisfactory to the Star.

If this continual raid which the United States army is carrying on against the Indians shall go on, says the Nashville World, the race will surely be exterminated. Think of it; about two months ago they captured a little Indian girl who had strayed from camp, and the other day they captured a squaw and a papoose or two, and now these daring soldiers have captured a whole Indian camp. There was, however, but one Indian in the camp, and he was dead.

An El Paso Toast.

The El Paso Herald of the 4th instant tells the following:

One of our local attorneys—we won't give his name—got a little enthused on New Year's, and drank the following toast: Here's to Guitau! May he be launched in a small schooner on a broad and boundless ocean, without rudder or compass; may that schooner be swallowed by a whale, the whale in the devil's belly, the door locked and the key lost, and furthermore, may he be chained in the northeast corner of b-1, a southwest wind blow ashes in his eyes, to all eternity, G—d d—n him.

Mr. H. M. MUNSSELL, vice-president of the Santa Catalina Copper company, with Mr. Baker, a large stockholder, and Mr. Frank Stevens, who is sent on by the New York company to take charge of the books of the company, arrived several days since. They have been to visit the mines, and are well pleased with what they have seen of our territory. They propose visiting several of the more important mines and prospects in this section. Mr. Stevens will probably take up his residence in Arizona. The Santa Catalina company was organized in New York by Dr. S. K. Kane, who is the resident manager here, and it is among the strongest companies ever organized in that city.—Citizen.

TELEGRAPHIC.

The Guitau Trial.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Guitau arrived at the court house about 9:30 A. M., and was taken to the waiting room. He appeared rather nervous and his countenance indicated anxiety. When he had taken a seat in the dock he glanced around stealthily and immediately began a harangue, evidently intended for the jury.

"I have received some eight hundred letters, a great many of them from ladies. When I get time I shall attend to them. I want to send my greeting to the ladies of America and thank them for their sympathy. They don't want me to be hanged. Public opinion is fast changing. I received Saturday a check for $1000 from the stalwarts of Brooklyn, and another for $500 from the stalwarts of New York. I want the jury to understand how public opinion is on this case."

A bailiff here tried to silence him, when he turned upon him in the most vicious manner, and shouted, "You keep quiet and mind your own business. Do not interfere with me when I am talking. If you had any sense you would understand your place."

With this opening breeze proceedings in due form were begun, and Souville resumed his argument, and addressed the court for over an hour without interruption, concluding his argument by 12 o'clock. The court then took a recess.

Gossip About Guitau.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Guitau says he wants just one hour to talk to the jury; they'll vindicate him.

An eminent lawyer says that under the code of the district of Columbia Guitau cannot be hanged before next May.

Scoville says the checks for $1500, received by Guitau Saturday, were worthless and were merely practical jokes. This has frequently occurred. He himself has had numerous bogus checks, one for $15,000.

Exorbitant Medical Fees.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Graphic's Washington special: Dr. Bliss has returned from New York, where he met the other physicians of the late President Garfield for consultation relating to fees. The total of the various sums agreed upon foot up $110,000. It is said that Bliss has taken charge of the claims of all of the physicians, and will present them to the congressional committee. It is understood he will ask for himself $30,000; for Drs. Agnew, Hamilton and Rayburn, $8,000 each, and for Dr. Boynton and Mrs. Dr. Edson, $10,000 each. Dr. Woodward and Surgeon-General Barnes get nothing, because they were in the employ of the government, but it is said they are to be promoted by way of recompense for their services. In answer to the question what was to go to the railroads, a friend of Bliss remarked today that it was understood from the doctor that the Pennsylvania railroad had refused to take anything, and that the state of Ohio would pay the expenses of the final obsequies, amounting to about $20,000.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Special from Washington: It is understood that Bliss will ask $50,000 for himself, $25,000 for Agnew, $25,000 for Hamilton, $5,000 for Rayburn, and $10,000 for Boynton and Edson each as nurses. It is believed that the discrimination against Boynton will cause a diversion in his favor by Mrs. Garfield, Colonel Rockwell and General Swain.

Bad for Office Seekers.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Post's Washington special says: Postmaster-General Howe has begun office with a peremptory refusal to listen to applications for office. He says the department is more than full and the list must be cut down. Secretary Folger has taken substantially the same ground.

Proceedings of the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Senate: Bill introduced by Hill of Georgia for a termination of the convention of January 30, 1875, between the United States and the king of the Hawaiian Islands. By Teller, for the deposit of silver bullion at the United States treasury, and the issue of certificates therefor. By Rollins, for the organization of the territory of Oklahoma.

Pendleton's Aspirations.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Washington special: It is semi-officially announced today that Senator Geo. H. Pendleton intends to be a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination two years hence.

Opposed to Miscegenation.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Times New Haven correspondence: The principal reason for recalling the Chinese students was the fear that they would marry American wives and become thoroughly Americanized. One named Chin Chan paid attention to a young lady named Sherman. Chan was recalled by the Chinese authorities, and when it was learned that he continued to maintain a correspondence with Miss Sherman they beheaded him.

The Mormon Oligarchy.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Tribune's Washington special: The papers filed in the Utah contest show of the 36 members of the general assembly of Utah paid out of the United States treasury, 32 are high officers of the Mormon church, bound by oath to obey the direction of the church, and 28 are polygamists.

Indian Depredations.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Times St. Paul special: General Terry, in his report as commander of the department of Dakota, says the Indians of the British provinces follow buffalo over the border. The buffalo are getting scarce, and the Indians raid the herds of the Montana stockmen. The latter are forming a military organization to protect their property and punish the depredators. He thinks it will require the best efforts of the governments on both sides of the line to avoid the evils likely to result.

The Dread Epidemic.

PORT JERVIS, N. Y., Jan. 8.—The board of health has closed all the churches on account of small-pox.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Samuel W. Piercy, the well-known young California actor, died from small-pox in Boston at 4 o'clock this morning.

Destructive Conflagration.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Havemeyer & Elder's Brooklyn Sugar Works building, seven stories high and 150 by 200 feet, was completely burned this afternoon. Loss, $1,500,000; insurance, 60 per cent.

Buried by Falling Walls.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 9.—The brick walls of a building recently burned fell this afternoon upon the restaurant of Cornelius Tracey, burying in the ruins fifteen to twenty men and women. The firemen were called out, and eleven persons were rescued. Eugene Fitzgerald and Massio Fulton are dead; Thomas and Sarah McConnell badly injured; Mrs. Cornelius Tracey, left leg broken; Martin Tracy, severely injured; Mrs. Patrick Stock, leg broken. The firemen are at work rescuing people still in the ruins.

An Indian to be Hanged.

YANKTON, Jan. 9.—Brave Bear, a Sioux Indian, for the murder of Jos. Johnson near Fort Sully, in May, 1879, has been sentenced to be hanged March 9. This will be the first case of Indian hanging in Dakota.

Numbered Railroad Accident.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—A very serious explosion and accident is reported to have occurred on the Illinois Central railroad outside the city limits. Several people are said to be killed.

Feeling with a Shotgun.

SPANISHTOWN, Cal., Jan. 9.—This evening about 5 o'clock the six-year-old son of Robert Savage, a farmer, was instantly killed by his eight-year-old brother. He was fooling with a shotgun, which accidentally went off, blowing the boy's head nearly off.

Road Agents in California.

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 9.—Two unsuccessful attempts were made last week to rob the stage near Los Alamos, the driver in both instances running away from the robbers. Last night three men stopped the stage near the same place, and captured Wells, Fargo & Co's box, and took a fine gold watch from the driver, which had been presented to him by the stage company. The robbers told him that it would pay him for running away from them, and they would keep it to remember him by.

Decision in a Mining Case.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—What is known as the Burger's ranch placer case, involving title to about 23 acres of mining land, in Shasta county, Cal., has been decided in favor of the applicant, Geo. Simmons. The decision takes the ground that as Simmons had occupied and worked the claim since 1869, he should receive a patent under the statute of limitations and California mining laws.

The Big Steel Ship.

BELFAST, Scotland, Jan. 9.—The largest steel sailing ship afloat, registering 2,220 tons, has just been launched from Ismay for Imrie & Co., managers for the Star line. It is named the Garfield, and will be employed in the Australian and California trade.

Giving Them a Touch of Arizona.

From the San Francisco Chronicle. An Arizona, giving the name of Carl Schillinger, planted himself in the middle of Kearny street, near Washington, about 7 o'clock last evening, and began discharging it "just for fun," as he explained to Detective Edelman and Officer Duggan, who arrested him for carrying concealed weapons and discharging firearms.

Hon. Tom Fitch delivered his lecture on the "Invisible Police" to an enchanted audience in Tucson, last Saturday evening. The proceeds of the lecture went to the public library fund.

YUMA ITEMS.

From the Yuma Sentinel.

Several carloads of steel rails for the Mexican Central railroad passed through Yuma the fore part of the week on an east-bound train.

Capt. Charles Harkins, commander at Fort Yuma, left on Tuesday evening's train for Camp McDowell, where he is called to attend to court-martial duty.

Ginochio & Co. are preparing for the planting of ornamental trees in front of their store, on Main street, which will beautify and add to comfort—one more proof of enterprise.

Manuel Grijalva, a convict who escaped from Yuma in July, 1880, was arrested in Tucson, and brought back to the territorial prison by Sheriff Paul, of Pima county, on Saturday last.

We are informed that Commodore Alex. Berry has assigned his flagship, the steamer Mohave, for the use of the engineering party, who leave for the Gulf of California about the middle of the present month.

The prison board has ordered an investigation of the Crum case, which will commence on the 11th inst., at Yuma, which we hope will be thorough and conclusive, and, in the language of General Grant, "Let no guilty man escape."

FINAL ITEMS.

From the Florence Enterprise.

A large number of ore sacks were sent up to Mineral Hill Saturday. They were consigned to Mr. John D. Sibbald and will be used in shipping ore from the Cholla and Wedge.

A large number of the juvenile Florentines are moping around, now-a-days, with more "jaw" about them than is possessed by the average mother-in-law. They are suffering from mumps.

A force of thirty men will be put to work on the Specie. Paying mine, on or before the first of next month. Mr. Thomas B. Fish, the foreman, is now engaged in making preparations for the work.

Reports reach us of a very rich strike on the southern slope of the Superstition mountains, which lie to the south of Florence about thirty-five miles. We have not learned the particulars yet.

A four-horse team, loaded with goods, passed through here Tuesday, en route to Mineral Hill. The goods belonged to some Tucson parties who intend to open a store at the Cottonwood camp, Mineral Hill. We did not learn the names.

Mr. William P. Miller is calling in the subscriptions for Alice stock, and the company will be incorporated at once and the property paid for. When this shall have been accomplished a large force of men will be put to work on the mine, sinking a shaft on a five hundred-foot, two-compartment shaft.

Mr. Whitaker, of Tucson, was here this week, and secured several good claims at Mineral Hill. He proposes organizing a company at Tucson to work these claims. Like every other man who has given the district a careful and fair examination, he considers it one of the most promising mineral fields in the west.

Mr. C. D. Henry, of Cottonwood, was in town this week. He is preparing to ship ore from one of his copper claims, located on the river, about ten miles above Florence. He can take out a large amount of ore that will average 40 to 60 per cent. copper. This can be mined and shipped at a handsome profit.

We predicted last week that cement would yet be discovered in this country, and our prediction has been fulfilled already. Thomas McLelland has discovered this valuable mineral on the Caledonia copper claim. He has not prospected it sufficiently to determine the quantity, but the quality is first-class. He came in from the Caledonia Monday, and besides specimens of the cement, he brought with him a lot of magnificent copper ore. He reports a strike of a six-foot vein of red oxide of copper in the Caledonia and sees in the future the probability of his becoming a millionaire. He certainly has reason to be jubilant, if the specimens brought in are a fair average of the vein, and he states that they are.

An Arizona Plan.

From the San Francisco Exchange.

It would save time, money, mental worry, rows, political conventions, and a good many other things, if the Arizona plan of allowing distinguished and ambitious citizens to announce themselves as candidates for civic offices was followed in this city, and by pooling their issues, so to speak, the expense to each candidate would be nominal. If the Tombstone plan was adopted, the Daily Exchange and its esteemed contemporaries would contain an advertisement somewhat to this effect:

NOTICE.

We hereby announce ourselves as candidates for

MAYOR

at the ensuing municipal election: Maurice C. Blake, Isaac S. Kallach, J. Henley Smith, Robert Howe, Frank Mc Coppel, John H. Wise, George K. Fitch, H. H. DeYoung, Loring Pickering, W. T. Sargent, John White, A. C. Heister, Fred McCrellish, I. N. Choyinski, S. S. Bamberger, Dennis Kearney and many others.

By this means convention wire-pullers and pot-house politicians would become things of the past, and the golden age of municipal politics set in with a big boom. The gentle voter would merely look over the list of would-be mayors and select the man of his choice. There would be no fuss, no friction of any kind. Let us try the cactus-land system by all means.

THE Bain stage line, between Fort Davis and Quitman, Texas, has an agent by the name of John Chadwell who is six feet six inches tall and still growing skyward. He is thirty-two years old.

MINING PARTNERS.

The question is often asked us as to the form of publication necessary to give notice to a delinquent partner of forfeiture of his interest for non-performance of his share of assessment work. We extract the following upon this subject from that reliable authority, the Mining and Scientific Press. Miners will do well to cut this out and preserve it for future reference:

The law provides that upon the failure of any one of several co-owners of a vein, lode or ledge, which has not been entered for patent, to contribute his proportion of the expenditures necessary to hold the claim or claims so held in ownership in common, the co-owners who have performed the labor or made the improvements, as required by law, may, at the expiration of the year, give such delinquent co-owner personal notice in writing, or notice by publication in the newspaper published nearest the claim, for at least once a week for 90 days; and if, upon the expiration of 90 days after such notice in writing, or upon the expiration of 180 days after the first newspaper publication of notice, the delinquent shall have failed to contribute his proportion to meet the expenditures or improvements, his interests in the claim passes by law to his co-owners who have made the expenditures or improvements.

The following forms are those which will be the proper ones to use in such cases:

NOTICE OF FORFEITURE.

County, _____, 188-.

To [names of all parties who have record title to any portion of the mine]: You are hereby notified that I have expended _____ dollars in labor and improvements upon the _____ (describe the claim), as will appear by certificate filed _____, 188-, in the office of the recorder of said county (or district), in order to hold said premises under the provisions of section 2324 Revised Statutes of the United States, being the amount required to hold the same for the year ending _____, 188-. And if within ninety days from the service of this notice (or within ninety days after this notice by publication), you fail or refuse to contribute your proportion of such expenditures as a co-owner, your interest in said claim will become the property of the subscriber under said section 2324. [Signature]

NOTE.—At the expiration of 90 days, this notice should be recorded with the affidavit of the newspaper publisher, that the same was published for the period of ninety days, together with the affidavit [Form 4] of the party signing the notice to the effect that one or more of the co-owners named in the published notice have not paid their share of the expenditure. This completes the record title.

AFFIDAVIT OF FAILURE TO CONTRIBUTE.

—of _____ County of _____, ss.

I, _____, being duly sworn, deposes and says that for the year ending _____, 188-, he expended at least _____ dollars in labor and improvements upon the _____ (describe the claim), as appears from the affidavit of the publisher thereof, and that _____ [of the said] co-owners have failed or refused to contribute their share of said expenditures within the time required by law.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this _____ day of _____, 188-.

The party who contributes his proportion of the required expenditures, can retain his interest in the mine. If a party fails to contribute his proportion of the actual expenditures of a mining claim, the remedy must be sought elsewhere than in the General Land Office.

Northern Arizona Peril.

From the Arizona Miner.

Arizona, ever since her settlement by white men, has labored under difficulties of all kinds. For years the Indians deterred immigration and capital from the outside world. Finally, after years of hard fighting, they were conquered by the military authorities, and placed on reservations, and peace and plenty reigned supreme; prosperity shone on us; our towns and villages were filled with enterprising and energetic men; railroads entered our borders, and thrift and prosperity were marked everywhere. Then the cow-boy element took possession of southern Arizona; stages and trains were robbed, settlements entered and sacked, cattle and horses stolen and run off, and men who dared to protect their property were shot down without warning. Northern Arizona, up to within a few months ago, was free from this lawless class, but upon the commencement of the spirit of desperation seems to have taken hold of this section. Reports of crimes and depredations come in almost daily from the line of the railroad, and unless some action is soon taken to check the course of this crowd, Arizona will once more be placed in the turmoil of war.

EACH year, on the Prince of Wales' birthday, his three young daughters play before him a short dramatic piece to show their progress in foreign tongues. Last year the selection was from the German; this year it was French. The young princesses Louise, Victoria and Maud acquitted themselves admirably in their respective parts, and the prince, complimenting the artists, asked for the name of the author.

A New York lady, who sailed for Europe last month, received a pleasant surprise the fourth day out, when the steward handed her a mail bag, filled with letters from friends in town, which it had been secretly arranged should be handed her about the time her sea-sickness had given place to home-sickness. There were some twenty odd letters in all, addressed to Miss _____, care Briny, Deep & Co., Neptune, Marine & Co., Nautical Brothers, Atlanticville, and so on.—Exchange. The lady simply turned over in her berth, groaned, and said: "Throw them overboard."

LOCAL SPOTLIGHT.

MR. J. O. DUNBAR, treasurer of Cochise county has returned from his late tour.

THE adjourned term of the Supreme court will be opened on February 13th, at Tucson.

THE telegraphic line from Casa Grande to Silver King will be completed in about ten days.

JUDGE STILLWELL spent Sunday in Phoenix, on his way back from Prescott to Tucson.

THE El Paso Herald of January 4th contains five spirited engravings of the recent bull-fight in that city.

JAMES REILLY appeared before the city council last evening and stated he had no protest to make, then the canvass proceeded without interruption. What a world, and what a people!

THE man who was arrested on suspicion of connection with the last stage robbery, it is believed now, was entirely innocent, being entirely too old to have the dash of a bold highwayman.

THE Supreme court has issued a stay on execution in the case of Alfredo Brown, sentenced to be hanged in Phenix on the 20th instant. This case will come before the Supreme court at its adjourned term in Tucson.

MR. P. A. CHALFANT, late of the Loyo Independent, Independence, California, is in Tucson. Mr. Chalfant is a brother-in-law of Mr. B. F. Bivins, of the Gunsmoke mine, and is making a tour of observation through Arizona, and will probably catch his lot with the people of this territory.

It is reported that George Marks, well known in Tombstone, has struck a rich mine in Sonora, about thirty-five miles from the Las Delicias property. Mr. S. O. Fredericks is interested with Mr. Marks in the find. Some of the ore shown in Tombstone was the richest ever seen from the land of the manyas.

TRAILING HORSE THIEVES.

IT Proves They Were Apaches and that they Escaped into Sonora.

From Mr. G. Lawrence the following facts in relation to the pursuit of the stolen stock from Helm's horse ranch were learned. The morning after the stock was stolen, which was one week ago last Sunday, the stock having been driven off on Saturday evening, Mr. Lawrence, in company with Henry Schultz, Walter Hall and Jeff Salig, took the trail and started in pursuit. They struck the trail six miles from the ranch and followed it to the foot of the Swisshelm mountains, on the western side, where they found a man who saw the party. He at first supposed they were Mexican smugglers, and in that supposition he crept cautiously up to within two hundred yards of them where he got a good view of seven stalwart Apaches sitting around a fire roasting meat, and he thinks there was one among the horses. He counted seventeen horses and mules in the band. It has been ascertained that there was taken from the ranch twenty-eight all told, there being some colts in the lot. From this point they tracked them to within ten miles of San Bernardino ranch, when the trail took a sudden turn in a southeast direction, crossing the Guadalupe canyon and striking direct for the Sierra Madres. The party followed them four days, and until they got into the Sierras, where the country was so rough and rocky that it was useless to go further, when they turned about and came home, having been gone seven days, riding as hard as their horses could stand it. They found where the Indians had killed and abandoned three colts and five horses that had given out in the fight. Whether this band is a part of Juh's band that passed through this country in October last, or some renegades just from San Carlos, cannot now be told. That they got the horses and are now in Sonora is certain, from whence, we will no doubt, hear of more of their damnable slaughter soon.

Justice's Court.

A. J. FELTER, J. P.

The Territory of Arizona vs. Jno. Hawes and William Hawes—charged with assault to murder. Upon examination the charge was reduced to simple assault and each of the defendants were fined $5 and costs, making $29 in each case. The gist of these cases is as follows: The complainant, F. Rosenkrantz, has several teams engaged in hauling wood in from the Dragoon mountains. The defendants are his teamsters—two brothers and brothers of Rosenkrantz's wife. It seems that on Sunday they had taken out with them a bottle of liquor and one of them was somewhat intoxicated when Mr. Rosenkrantz came to them where at work. The result was that he told the brothers that that would not do, that he would have no such work around him, going so far, it is reported, as to threaten to break the bottle. At this one of the brothers became enraged and made violent threats, whereupon the other brother, who was not at this time intoxicated, persuaded Mr. Rosenkrantz to go away, saying that it would be all right. He did go away, but on returning some time after, he found both drunk and in a fighting humor, and they went so far as to drive him away from his teams and fired at him. At this Mr. Rosenkrantz became so alarmed that he ran away with all his might, and kept on running until exhausted, when he sat down by the side of the road, where he was taken up by a man who came along in a buggy and brought to town, where complaint was entered and a warrant issued by Justice Felter, which was put into the hands of Deputy Sheriff Perkins, who went out and made the arrests, bringing in the prisoners and lodging them in jail Sunday night. They paid their fines and went home wiser if not better men.

THE Oriental in First Hands Again. Messrs. Rickabaugh & Co. have sold out the Oriental saloon to Mr. M. E. Joyce, who will formally open it up for business this evening. Messrs. Joyce & Parker were the proprietors at the time of the fire last June, at which time it was the most popular saloon in the territory. In addition to the embellishments put upon the place by Messrs. Rickabaugh & Co., Mr. Joyce has added a large collection of fine pictures, besides other nicknacks, which make it as beautiful as a parlor. Mr. Joyce is one of the best managers of the saloon business ever in Tombstone, and he will no doubt bring to this old corner all its former popularity.

Wells, Fargo & Co's Express. Their report on the street yesterday that Wells, Fargo & Co. were going to haul off their express from the Tombstone routes. Upon inquiry in the office, our reporter was informed by J. B. Hume, the company's detective, that the subject had never been considered by the executive officers in San Francisco up to the present time. He said that he advised the taking off the Bluebe line, and a dispatch had been received ordering that of fleet to be closed and the stationery and other supplies brought down to Tombstone. Their losses on that road have been $6,000, being $3,500 in the September robbery, and $2,500 in that of Friday last. It is not considered improbable that they may take their express off between Benson and Tombstone, the risks being greater than the profits.

Proceedings of the Common Council. The council was called to order by Acting Mayor Fridham, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. Councilmen Tribble and Harwood present; S. B. Chapin, clerk.

The bill of Marshall Williams was laid over.

The report was received and ordered that warrants be drawn for the payment of the bills.

Mr. Reilly stated to the council that he had no protest to make.

The council then proceeded to canvass the returns of the late election, and the same being completed, a resolution was adopted declaring John Carr elected mayor, David Neagle chief of police, A. O. Wallace recorder, H. Solomon treasurer, Denis McCarthy city assessor, O. O. Trammitt city attorney, Chas Thomas alderman 1st ward, E. H. Dean alderman 2d ward, T. A. Atchison alderman 3d ward, and J. M. Nash alderman 4th ward.

The city auditor was directed to issue certificates of election to the above chosen officers.

On motion it was ordered that the city clerk be authorized to draw warrants of $5 to
